ORDER

This matter is before the court on the motion to continue by defendant Jessica Alamina (Alamina) (Filing No. 20). Alamina seeks a continuance of the trial of this matter which is scheduled for November 5, 2012. Alamina's counsel has represented to the court that Alamina consents to the motion and acknowledges she understands the additional time may be excludable time for the purposes of the Speedy Trial Act. Alamina's counsel represents that government's counsel has no objection to the motion. Upon consideration, the motion will be granted.

IT IS ORDERED:

1. Alamina's motion to continue trial (Filing No. 20) is granted.
2. Trial of this matter is re-scheduled for December 3, 2012, before Judge Joseph F. Bataillon and a jury. The ends of justice have been served by granting such motion and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. The additional time arising as a result of the granting of the motion, i.e., the time between October 4, 2012, and December 3, 2012, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act for the reason that defendants' counsel require additional time to adequately prepare the case. The failure to grant additional time might result in a miscarriage of justice. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) & (B).

DATED this 4th day of October 2012.

United States Magistrate Judge
